This opportunity may be for the man who has little control over his:

And the man who desires:

Income
Work hours
Promotion opportunities
Uncertain career

Built-in Clientele
Fringe Benefits
Education and Training
Performance-based Compensation

Circumstances that may lead someone to consider a change of career:

- Wants or needs a higher income than current job can provide
- Is tired of traveling and being away from home
- Can't advance further in a family firm because he is not a family member
- Lack of challenging work in his current position
- No control over his future with current company
- Has risen as high as he can go, but has even higher aspirations
- Has been downsized through no fault of his own

With this in mind, to whom should I talk?
